
DARREN P. WARD

EDUCATION

B.S. – Civil Engineering, University of Maine, 2020

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

2020 to present – Sevee & Maher Engineers, Inc., Cumberland, Maine, Project Engineer

2017 to 2019 (summers) – Sevee & Maher Engineers, Inc., Civil Engineering Intern

2016 – Lewiston Public Works, Lewiston, Maine – landscaping, pool maintenance

CERTIFICATIONS AND AFFILIATIONS

40-hour HAZWOPER with current 8-hour Refresher Training

Nuclear Gauge Safety with Hazmat Certification

Quality Control and Quality Assurance of Geosynthetics in Solid and Liquid Waste Containment Facilities, (Geosynthetic Education Institute)

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Mr. Ward's work has included a range of assignments, including:

- Performed construction oversight, cost estimate analysis, and related engineering tasks
- Performed construction oversight of earthwork and geosynthetics for landfill cell construction
- Performed site-specific quality assurance testing
- Sampled groundwater monitoring wells
- Performed various soil analysis calculations in an in-house soils laboratory
- Managed construction contractor time and materials documentation
- Contributed to writing project reports for clients and job site owners

Additional areas of knowledge include:

- Water Resources
 - Analysis and design
 - Stormwater hydrology, stormwater Best Management Practices
- Basic Surveying
- Project Engineering
 - Document work progress and provide oversight to ensure compliance to specifications and project plans
 - Communicate field activity status using photos, daily/weekly reports, hosting weekly construction meetings, and performing stormwater inspections throughout the construction process