

MARK P. COLEMAN, IH, CIE

EDUCATION

Boston Architectural Center – Architectural Design (1980 – 1983)
Southern Maine Technical College – A.S. in Building Construction and Diagnostics

PROFESSIONAL REGISTRATIONS AND CERTIFICATIONS

Certified Indoor Environmentalist
Certified Asbestos Designer, Management Planner, Inspector, Monitor, Analyst

AFFILIATIONS

Maine Indoor Air Quality Association (MIAQ), Member
American Indoor Air Quality Association (AIAQA), Member
American Conference of Industrial Hygienists, Member

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

2019 to present – Environmental Safety & Hygiene Associates, LLC, Cumberland, ME, Senior Industrial Hygienist
1997 to 2019 – Environmental Safety & Hygiene Associates, Inc., Westbrook, ME, President/Owner
1997 to 2019 – BIOSAFE Environmental Services, Inc., Westbrook, ME, Former President/Owner
1994 to 1997 - Abatement Professionals, Inc. – Westbrook, ME, Asbestos, Lead, and Mold Abatement Manager
1992 to 1994 – Industrial Hygiene New England, Inc., Biddeford, ME, Environmental Division Manager
1990 to 1992 – Balsam Environmental, Augusta, ME, Regional Environmental Coordinator
1983 to 1989 - Collaborative Design Boston, Boston, MA, Commercial and Retail Architectural Design
1980 to 1983 - The Architects Collaborative, Cambridge, MA, Commercial and Retail Architectural Design

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Mr. Coleman is a Certified Indoor Environmentalist (CIE) and building systems technologist with more than 25 years of professional experience in the areas of Environmental Management, Occupational Safety and Health, and Indoor Environmental Quality. In addition, he has specialized education and training in commercial and residential architecture and building technology, including building construction and diagnostics.

Areas of Expertise

- Architectural Design
- Degree in Construction Technology / Diagnostics
- Certified Indoor Environmentalist (CIE)
- Professional Industrial Hygienist
- Occupational Health and Safety
- Indoor Air Quality
- Expert Testimony